

Kanters

Healthy Animals, Healthy Farm

Are you passionate about animal health and nutrition? Are you ready to take the next step in your career with an international company driving innovation in livestock farming? Kanters is looking for you!

Vacancy: Sales Representative Poultry

About Kanters

Kanters Special Products is a Dutch water specialist in intensive livestock farming. From our headquarters in the Netherlands, we develop, produce, and sell nutritional supplements, cleaning and disinfection agents for (drinking) water systems, and dosing technology. Our products are used worldwide to support animal health and reduce the use of antibiotics. Our mission: Healthy Animals, Healthy Farm.

To expand our team in Poland we would like to get in touch with a Technical Sales Representative. In this independent and varied role, you are a key contact between our innovative solutions and our customers. A hybrid technical-commercial role, ideal for a young professional with strong communication skills, a proactive attitude, and preferably a background in poultry.

What will you do?

- You will build and maintain long-term relationships with farmers, integrators, veterinarians and distributors and ensure our products are used effectively with the goal of healthier animals, satisfied customers and better farm results
- Provide technical support and advice on our products and solutions
- Identify new business opportunities and drive sales growth
- Represent Kanters at industry events and fairs in Poland
- Collaborate closely with the team and report to the Regional Manager

What we're looking for:

- Native Polish speaker, fluent in English, based in Poland
- At least 3 years of commercial experience and a strong network within the poultry sector
- Background in animal science, veterinary medicine, or agri-business preferred
- Experience or knowledge in poultry
- Sales-driven, hands-on and eager to learn
- Willingness to travel within Poland

What we offer:

- A dynamic position within a growing international company
- Training and support from our headquarters in the Netherlands
- Opportunities for professional development
- Competitive salary
- Company car, laptop and phone
- An informal working atmosphere
